CRAIG DODD, CHIEF OF POLICE

MEDIA RELEASE 11/17/2011

On November 15, 2011 at 4:00 am, Officers from the Alamosa Police Department were dispatched to 1617 State Ave. (JBC Liquors) for an alarm that had been activated.

The responding officers and the owner discovered that two subjects attempted to enter the building through the drive-up window, but were unsuccessful and left the area prior to anyone's arrival. Surveillance video was able to capture an image of both parties.

One of the subjects was wearing tan cargo pocket style pants and a Baltimore Ravens jacket. The other was wearing blue jeans and a blue or grey hoodie sweatshirt, with the hood up. Both suspects appear to be White or Hispanic and their actual height or weight is unknown. Nothing inside the building was tampered with or taken.

Citizens are asked to please go to the city's website www.cityofalamosa.org or view Channel 10 on the local cable programming to assist in identifying the unidentified suspects. The Alamosa Police Department is asking that anyone knowing this suspect or having information about this incident or any other incidents contact Lt.Oakes or Det. Gonzales at 719-589-2548. Citizens can remain anonymous by reporting the information through CrimeStoppers. Any information provided that leads to the arrest and/or conviction of the suspect(s) may be eligible for a reward through CrimeStoppers.

Sincerely;

Chief Craig Dodd
