JOHN A. JACKSON, CHIEF OF POLICE

MEDIA RELEASE**

12.02.09

The Alamosa Police Department would like to remind the public that leaving your car running to warm up, while unlocked, is both unwise and unsafe. It is also illegal.

As the colder weather begins to be more common in our mornings, it is tempting to start your car, to allow it to warm up, while you run back inside. We have not seen an increase in stolen vehicles, but the police department wants everyone to know that leaving a car unattended running and unlocked is a very common way that cars are stolen.

Preventing this crime is easy as it is purely a crime of opportunity. We truly appreciate your cooperation in this matter.

Sincerely;

John A. Jackson
